VI. METHOD OF PRICE CALCULATION

- 6.1. Bid price calculation: the price should be calculated as a net amount.
- 6.2. Bids with the price given in a currency other than PLN will be converted to PLN at the average exchange rate of the National Bank of Poland (<https://www.nbp.pl/>) on the end date of the time limit for the submission of bids.
- 6.3. The price should include all the costs related to the preparation and performance of the subject of the Price Inquiry- cost of transport, insurance, others.
- 6.4. The price given in the bid cannot change during contract performance.

VII. CONTRACT AWARD CRITERIA

- 7.1. The bids will be evaluated based on the following criteria:
 - Price – 100%,
- 7.2. The evaluation criteria apply both to partial bids and bids covering all parts of the subject of the order. The evaluation will be performed and scores will be awarded for each part of the subject of the order separately, regardless of whether the bid covers all or only some parts of the subject of the order.
- 7.3. The scoring of the bid:

the score (P_C) for the criterion 'price' will be calculated as follows:

$$P_C = \frac{C_N}{C_B} * 100 \text{ points}$$

where:

- | | | |
|-------|---|---|
| P_C | - | score for the criterion 'price' |
| C_N | - | the lowest total net price based on non-rejected bids |
| C_B | - | total net price of the bid under evaluation |

Bids with the price given in a currency other than PLN will be converted to PLN at the average exchange rate of the National Bank of Poland as at the final date for the submission of bids.

- 7.4. The bid with the highest score out of all the non-rejected bids will be considered the best bid. The maximum score that can be awarded is 100 points. Calculations will be made to two decimal places.

VIII. PLACE AND DATES FOR SUBMITTING AND OPENING BIDS

XI. BID EVALUATION PROCEDURE AND PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

- 11.1. During the examination and evaluation of the submitted bids, the Buyer may request the Seller to provide additional information (if it does not infringe competition) and clarifications related to the submitted bids. The Buyer may also ask the Seller to correct evident mistakes and calculation errors.
- 11.2. The Buyer reserves the right to verify, during the bid evaluation, the documents, statements, lists, data and information provided by the Sellers.
- 11.3. If two or more Sellers have the same score, the bid which is best in terms of the environmental and climate impact will be selected. For this purpose, the Buyer has the right to request the Sellers with the highest final score to supplement the bid with more information requested by the Buyer with respect to the environmental impact of the subject of the bid.
- 11.4. The Procuring Entity reserves the right to cancel the procedure without giving any reason. In the event of cancellation of the procurement proceedings, sellers shall not be entitled to claim reimbursement of the costs of participation in the proceedings.
- 11.5. The Procuring Entity reserves the right to negotiate with the selected Seller who obtained the highest number of points during the examination of the bids. The conducted negotiations shall not change the result of the procedure.

XII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- 12.1. The Seller bears all costs related to the preparation and submission of the bid.
- 12.2. Until the deadline for submission of bids, the Buyer reserves the right to change or add the content of this price inquiry.

XIII. AMENDMENT TO THE CONTENT OF THE AGREEMENT

13.1 The Contracting Authority reserves the right to make significant changes to the provisions of the Agreement for the offered products in relation to the contents of the offer on the basis of which the Seller was selected, in the following scope and situations:

- 13.1.1. changes in the provisions of law, in the scope affecting the execution of the Agreement (in particular, changes in VAT rates);
- 13.1.2. improvement of the technical parameters of the subject of the Agreement, resulting from the update of solutions due to technological progress, without affecting the gross lump sum price.
- 13.1.3. extension of the term of execution of the Agreement as a result of the need to perform additional work, the performance of which is necessary for the proper execution of the Agreement, and the performance of which the Employer, acting with due diligence, could not have predicted earlier, subject to section 13.1.6 below;
- 13.1.4. extension of the deadline for execution of the Contract as a result of force majeure, together with all consequences occurring in connection with such extension;
- 13.1.5. changes in the parameters of the subject matter of the Agreement, not leading to changes in the nature of the Agreement - technological changes, in particular: the need to implement the Agreement using other technical/technological, material solutions than those indicated in the Request for Proposal, in a situation where the use of the provided solutions would threaten non-performance or faulty performance of the Agreement, subject to item 13.1.7. below;
- 13.1.6. changes relate to the performance of additional supplies or services of the Seller, not covered by the Contract, provided that they have become necessary and the following conditions are jointly met:

- the change of the Seller cannot be made for economic or technical reasons, in particular concerning interchangeability or interoperability of equipment, services or installations, ordered within the basic subject of the Contract,
- the change of the Seller would cause a significant inconvenience or a significant increase in costs for the Ordering Party,
- the value of each subsequent change does not exceed 50% of the net value of the original net subject of the Contract;

13.1.7. the change does not lead to a change in the nature of the Contract and the following conditions have been met jointly:

- the need to change the Contract is caused by circumstances that the Contracting Authority, acting with due diligence, could not foresee,
- the value of the change does not exceed 50% of the value of the original net subject of the Contract;

13.1.8 The Seller is to be replaced by a new seller:

- as a result of merger, demerger, transformation, bankruptcy, restructuring or acquisition of the Seller or its enterprise, provided that the new Seller meets the conditions for participation in the procedure, there are no grounds for exclusion against it and it does not involve other significant changes to the Contract,
- as a result of taking over by the Ordering Party of the Contractor's obligations to its subcontractors.
- amendment to the contract does not lead to changes in its nature.

13.2 The Contracting Authority also provides for the possibility of making non-substantive changes to the provisions of the Contract in relation to the contents of the offer on the basis of which the Seller was selected.

13.3 Amendments to the Contract shall be made in the form of annexes signed by both Parties, and the possibility of their introduction is subject to acceptance by the Contracting Authority.
