- X.9. Answers to questions and details Inquiries resulting from questions from potential Contractors will be sent to the entity that sent the question.

XI. MODE OF EVALUATION OF BIDS AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF RESULTS

- XI.1. In the course of the examination and evaluation of bids, the Contracting Authority may request from the Contractor supplements (if this does not affect competitiveness) and explanations regarding the content of the submitted bids. It may also ask for obvious accounting errors and errors to be corrected.
- XI.2. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to check the credibility of the documents, statements, lists, data and information presented by the Contractors in the course of the evaluation of the bid.
- XI.3. If two or more Contractors obtain the same number of points, the most advantageous offer in terms of environmental and climate impact will be selected. For this purpose, the Contracting Authority has the right to call on the Contractors whose bids have received the highest final number of points to supplement the bid by providing the information indicated by the Contracting Authority regarding the environmental impact of the subject of the bid.
- XI.4. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to negotiate offers with the Contractor whose offer will receive the highest number of points, in particular in the event that the price offered by the Contractor exceeds the budget allocated by the Contracting Authority for the execution of the contract.
- XI.5. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to cancel the procedure without giving a reason.
- XI.6. In the event of annulment of the procurement procedure, suppliers are not entitled to a claim for reimbursement of the costs of participation in the procedure.

- XI.7. Withdrawal by the Contracting Authority from concluding the contract in the event of notifying the Contractor of the selection of its bid may not be the basis for claims for the costs of participation in the procedure.

XII. CHANGE IN THE CONTENT OF THE AGREEMENT

XII.1. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to make significant changes to the provisions of the Agreement for the services offered in relation to the content of the offer on the basis of which the Contractor was selected, to the following extent and situations:

- XII.1.1. changes in the provisions of law, to the extent affecting the performance of the Agreement (in particular changes in VAT rates);
- XII.1.2. improving the technical parameters of the subject of the Agreement, resulting from updating solutions due to technological progress, without affecting the gross lump sum price;
- XII.1.3. extension of the deadline for the performance of the Agreement as a result of the need to perform additional works, the performance of which is necessary for the proper performance of the Agreement, and the performance of which the Ordering Party, acting with due diligence, could not have foreseen in advance, subject to point XII.1.6 below;
- XII.1.4. extension of the deadline for the performance of the Agreement as a result of force majeure along with all the consequences arising in connection with the extension of this deadline;
- XII.1.5. changes in the parameters of the subject of the Agreement, not leading to a change in the nature of the Agreement - technological changes, in particular: the need to perform the Agreement with the use of technical/technological and material solutions other than those indicated in the Request for Proposal, in a situation where the application of the envisaged solutions would threaten non-performance or defective performance of the Agreement, subject to point XII.1.7. below;
- XII.1.6. changes concern the performance of additional supplies or services of the Contractor, not covered by the Agreement, if they have become necessary and the following conditions have been met together:
- the change of the Contractor may not be made for economic or technical reasons, in particular concerning the interchangeability or interoperability of equipment, services or installations ordered under the basic subject of the Agreement,
 - the change of the Contractor would result in a significant inconvenience or a significant increase in costs for the Ordering Party,
 - the value of each subsequent change does not exceed 50% of the net value of the original subject of the Agreement;
- XII.1.7. the change does not lead to a change in the nature of the Agreement and the following conditions have been met in total:
- the necessity to amend the Agreement is caused by circumstances that the Ordering Party, acting with due diligence, could not have foreseen,
 - the value of the change does not exceed 50% of the net value of the original subject of the Agreement;
- XII.1.8. The contractor is to be replaced by a new contractor:
- as a result of a merger, division, transformation, bankruptcy, restructuring or acquisition of the Contractor or its enterprise, provided that the new Contractor meets the conditions for participation in the procedure, there are no grounds for exclusion against it and it does not entail other material changes to the Agreement,

- as a result of the Contracting Authority's assumption of the Contractor's obligations towards its subcontractors.

- XII.2. The Contracting Authority also provides for the possibility of making insignificant changes to the provisions of the concluded Agreement in relation to the content of the offer on the basis of which the Contractor was selected.
- XII.3. Amendments to the Agreement will be introduced in the form of annexes signed by both Parties, and the possibility of their introduction depends on the acceptance by the Ordering Party.
- XII.4. The buyer requires other important parameters of the offer to be met:
- Payment term: minimum 30 days;
 - Offer validity: 90 days;
- XII.5. Contractual penalties - The Supplier is obliged to pay contractual penalties due to:
- postponement of the deadline for the execution of the order for each day of delay, if the delay is not due to the fault of the Ordering Party;
 - improper performance of the contract;
 - incomplete performance of the contract.

The Supplier agrees to deduct the amount of contractual penalties directly from the payment of the VAT invoice at the time of delivery.

XIII. OTHER INFORMATION

- XIII.1. The Contractor bears all costs related to the preparation and submission of the offer.
- XIII.2. Until the expiry of the deadline for submission of bids, the Ordering Party reserves the right to change or supplement the content of this price inquiry.
